

ASPIRANTS TO SENATE PREDICT HUGHES SWEEP

Unusual Meeting at Republican State Headquarters
Last Night.

GOL. HITE IS CONFIDENT

So Are Former Governor
White and Their Successful Opponent.

(Special Dispatch to West Virginian)
CLARKSBURG, Oct. 11.—Three of the four candidates for the Republican nomination for United States Senator in last June's primary were together last night at Republican State headquarters conferring with campaign managers on the plans and policy of the fine battle that the Republicans are making to hold the state in line and bring about a sweeping victory next month for the entire ticket. The three were Congressman Howard Sutherland, ex-Governor Albert B. White, of Parkersburg, and Hon. William F. Hite, of Huntington. The three came to join the Hughes campaign, Governor White heading a delegation from his city composed of William Bentley and David Crawford two of Parkersburg's leading manufacturers and enthusiastic party workers, and Judge T. A. Brown. Another delegation from Parkersburg arrived at 2:30 a. m. Governor White predicted the election of the whole Republican ticket. "Every sign points that way," he said. "Party prospects are daily growing brighter."

Colonel Hite, who didn't miss winning the senatorship by very many votes, was equally sanguine of a glorious party victory in West Virginia next month. Colonel Hite, whose attitude the day after the primary and ever since, has won him universal admiration as a game loser, a man who has shown the finest kind of sportsmanship, returned recuperated from a summer spent in the New Hampshire mountains and jumped into the management of party affairs in Cabell and adjoining counties with vim and vigor. His coat is off.

"Why, we will win in West Virginia this year in a romp," he told the interviewer. "The Democrats are making a lot of noisy claims, as they always do this far in advance of election day. But that doesn't alter the unalterable fact that there are about 10,000 or 40,000 more Republican votes in this state than there are Democratic votes. There isn't the shadow of a doubt, as to the ability of Hughes and Sutherland to sweep the state, and as for Judge Robinson, upon whom the fight has centered, he will go through in a whirl, too. Just mind that. The Republicans of this State are up and a-doing, wide-awake, and determined to win. The party is in the fettle. I expect to see a solid Republican delegation elected from West Virginia to back up President Hughes, and I predict this will be one of the greatest administrations in the nation's history."

WELL WATER CAUSE OF TYPHOID SPREAD

Five cases of typhoid and one of diphtheria are all the transmissible diseases reported in the city of Fairmont for the month ending October 1. This makes a total of 42 cases of typhoid during the year since January 1 and of this number 35 were directly traced to infected wells while the source of the remaining seven were not discovered. None at all however were ascribed to the city water supply.

The absence of the great number of contagious diseases that are usually reported about the time of year that the schools begin is ascribed by the City Board of Health to the rigid medical inspection of school children that has been effective this year.

All but a small number of the children now in the schools have either been inspected by their family physician or the regular school inspectors. Dr. Falconer for the schools in Fairmont Independent district hopes to have the work completed this week, and Dr. Boyer on the Palatine side will also complete the work this week. When this work is completed the teachers as well as the parents will be provided with the information obtained and it is expected to add materially to the efficiency of the schools.

There are three new cases of typhoid reported in the city for this month and some of the cases which were reported last month have recovered. Samples of the well water used by these persons were taken for examination today and it is likely that the disease will be traced to this source.

No Trace Yet of Kingstonian Crew

(By Associated Press)
NEWPORT, Oct. 11.—The United States destroyers which have been searching for the crew of the British steamer Kingstonian, reported sunk by a German submarine off the Nantuxet shoal light ship on Sunday last, returned here today. None of them reported having found any trace of the Kingstonian's boat. The sea was very rough and the weather cold during yesterday and last night.

INVESTMENT CO. STOCK BOOKS OPEN

Subscriptions Come in Rapidly and Much Confidence Shown.

Subscriptions to the stock of the Fairmont Investment company began today at the local banks and all day during banking hours many inquiries were received and much interest manifested in the offer of the new development company. The stock subscription books which were opened today were not closed but will likely be kept open for several days in order to give an opportunity for subscribing to those who were unable to call today.

Local bankers stated today that the success of the stock subscription was assured and possibly another day will see the entire $150,000 issue taken. The feature of today's subscription was the fact that those who did subscribe wished to get as much of the stock as possible, expressing themselves as very confident of the successful future of Fairmont and the industrial development projects contemplated by the investment company. The stock today was being offered at all of the local banks and at the office of the Fairmont Chamber of Commerce. No person can obtain more than $2,500 worth of the preferred stock and no subscriptions less than $100 were accepted. The large bonus of 75 per cent. in common stock and the installment payment plan seems to have acted to make the proposition within the reach of every business man in the city and from an investment basis the seven per cent. interest that the preferred stock will draw has proven very attractive.

began to talk this morning his voice was somewhat husky but soon cleared up. Shortly after he began speaking he placed his soft hat on his head as a protection from the early morning dampness and chill. This is the first time in the history of political addresses in West Virginia that an address such as this was given at nine o'clock in the morning.

Mr. Hughes' speech though short was clear and forceful and commended by all who heard him as an able effort. National Committeeman Highland introduced Mr. Hughes and when the candidate had finished Judge Robinson followed with a short talk. The immense crowd was very attentive and there were no interruptions during the speeches. All of the Republican Party leaders who were present this morning feel that the address of Mr. Hughes has given a tremendous impulse toward victory to the Republican campaign in this state.

The Fairmont party left Clarksburg at 10:30 in their special cars arriving in this city again at noon, filled with enthusiasm and praise for Mr. Hughes. The Hughes party in their special train left Clarksburg at ten o'clock for Parkersburg and Huntington where he speaks this afternoon and evening. Mr. Hughes was accompanied on his trip through the State by Judge Robinson and national committeeman, Highland.

FAIRMONT FANS CHEER BROOKLYN

Many Were Pulling for Trolley Dodgers in Local Crowd.

The third game of the World Series played on the West Virginian Player board drew its usual thousand or so to the corner of Monroe and Main streets and yesterday's thousand went away a happy lot for 75 per cent of them were Brooklyn fans and Brooklyn won. There was not much for the fans to become enthusiastic over in the first few innings for double plays and "out short to first" and "out third to first" were the only important happenings according to the red and white lights.

But about the middle of the game when Brooklyn started to hit the ball and more balls than strikes floated across the pan the crowd got up from the seats and stood during the rest of the game. The Grand Stand seats made of two bricks across two standing upright were abandoned when Olson caught the first ball pitched on the end of his bat for a triple and sent two Trolley Dodgers scooting across the home plate.

Lots of money changed hands after the game and as much more during the innings for there were several good chances for each team to score. At times when Brooklyn or Boston would

All the bases there were bets made that they would or would not score. One nifty fan even went so far as to bet that Wheat would knock a home run with the bats full. He borrowed care fare home.

Strange to relate, when Mays was taken out of the box there was not a cheer and the same is true of the voluntary exit of Coombs. The fans of Fairmont cheer when players are doing good but as all true fans should do, they mourn when players of either

QUALITY

That is the Real Secret of the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers Popularity

Whenever you see the Chalmers trade mark you always see the phrase "Quality First." Whenever you think Chalmers you think "Quality." And if you have been reading my ads or have been in my salesroom, you are impressed with the fact that the 3400 r. p. m. is a Chalmers car of unusual quality.

I've often said that it is, in my opinion, the greatest car the Chalmers Company has built. And I have an excellent reason for saying this. It is a step ahead of any preceding Chalmers because it performs a shade better.

The Quality in the new Chalmers is the kind of quality that tells on the road and tells wonderfully.

Now it is just this exceptional quality, just this shade of improvement that has brought Chalmers sales and production ahead in leaps these 12 months past.

I don't think the men in charge of affairs at the Chalmers factory realize what they had in the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers. At any rate they underestimated the demand. They built more than they had ever produced in any previous season, 'tis true, but still not enough.

The first making order was snapped up quickly. Then came a second lot. These went just as fast.

Now the factory is building the third lot and I understand that Chalmers has no intention of stopping even there. Quality it was that caused this unprecedented demand. Chalmers certainly have the right idea in building cars, "Quality First."
